Editors

Another month has passed since the new academic year began.

We present before you the second edition of 'Chinmaya Vaani', our Vidyalaya Newsletter. The month of July filled us with exciting and enthusiastic programmes.

It was indeed a pleasure for us to create this month's Vaani with the help of our respected teachers who helped, monitored, and tutored us to create the newsletter successfully. We hope the month of July filled you with ventures, auspiciousness, and happiness. Happy reading...

Guru Poornima

The Vidyalaya celebrated Guru Poornima on Monday, 3rd July, 2023 with utmost devotion and reverence. Special assembly was conducted in the auditorium. My Wall was decorated with the images of Gurus in Guruparampara and with write ups. Class 12 students were brought to the auditorium. The programme commenced with the prayer by 11th std students. Gurustotram, chinmayashtakam, Tapovanashatkam and Gurupadukastotram were chanted. While Vysa Astothara SathaNamavali was being chanted, the students did Archana in front of the traditional lamp. Simultaneously archana was done in all the classes. The class teachers talked to the children on the relevance of the day and the importance of Guru in one's life. The children chanted the prayers along with the choir. They touched the feet of the class teacher and were blessed. A speech on the significance of Guru was delivered by Ananthalakshmi c prasad of class XI C. The Principal did Arathi along with the Vice Principal, Sr Headmistress and Head master. All students could see the divinity in their teachers. After the programme, Prasada was distributed. It was really a blissful day.

VISIT TO SREEPARVATHY SEVA NILAYAM (SEVA DAY)

On account of Swami Tejomayandaji's Birthday, which is celebrated as Sewaday, the students of class 12 took up an initiative to collect basic sanitation items and provisions. This noble endeavor aimed at assisting those in need and contributing to the welfare of the community. On the designated day, the student council members, accompanied by teachers, visited Sreeparavathy Sevanilayam in Choolissery. This rehabilitation center serves as a safe haven for women with minor mental disabilities, providing them with care, support, and a chance to rebuild their lives. The students, with great enthusiasm and compassion, handed over the collected items to the inmates of Sreeparavathy Sevanilayam.. It was a heartwarming sight to witness the joy and gratitude expressed by the recipients, as they received these much-needed supplies. This act of kindness displayed the students' commitment to social responsibility and their dedication to making a positive impact in the lives of others. Through their collective efforts, they demonstrated the value of empathy and the importance of lending a helping hand to those in need. Overall, the students' participation in Sewaday and their visit to Sreeparavathy Sevanilayam was a testament to their compassion, generosity, and commitment to making a positive difference in the society.

" It is the privilege to serve mankind, for this is the worship of God. "

INTERACTION WITH PARENTS

classes

1 & 2

9 & 10

11 & 12

An interactive session for the parents with the principal and the Vice Principal was held in the month of July. Most of the parents attended the meeting. Academic planning and schedule of examinations were explained by the Principal.
